

Andreas Panagopoulos MD, MRCOphth

Eye Surgeon

Academics

- Medical Degree, Semmelweis University of Medicine, Budapest, Hungary
- Certificate of Completion of Specialist Training in Ophthalmology, Athens
- Membership of the Royal College of Ophthalmologists, London (MRCOphth)

Professional Experience

- Corneal Fellow, Western Eye Hospital, London UK
- Corneal Fellow, Southend University Hospital, Southend UK
- Cataract Fellow, Moorfields Eye Hospital, London UK
- Registrar in Ophthalmology, Cambridge University Hospitals UK
- SHO in Ophthalmology, Birmingham and Midland Eye Center, Birmingham UK

Educational Experience

- Training of optometrists and A&E doctors in ophthalmic cases
Southend University Hospital UK, 2012-2014
- Training of medical students in Ophthalmology
University of Cambridge UK, 2008-2010

Membership in Societies

- Royal College of Ophthalmologists, London, UK
- European Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgeons

Clinical interest

- Clinical and Surgical Cornea
- Cataract
- Refractive Surgery
- Anterior segment pathology

Publications

- Punctal switch grafting for the treatment of dry eye. Our experience.
A. Panagopoulos, K. Chalioulias, A. Ramsay
Ophthalmic Res 2011; 46:218-220
- A new approach in the surgical management of Anterior Capsular Phimosis syndrome.
Panagopoulos, K.Chalioulias, G.Kirkby
Ophthalmic Res 2009; 42: 221-223

- Bilateral congenital Hamartomas of the retinal pigment epithelium in a patient with Down syndrome.
A. Panagopoulos, K. Chalioulias, A. Murray Eye 2008; 22: 735-736
- Macular hole re-operations: results and visual outcome
Panagopoulos, K.Chalioulias, R.Scott, G.Kirkby
Invest. Ophthalmol. Vis. Sci. 48: E-Abstract No. 4122

Contact Details

Telephone: 210 8940902-4

Fax: 210 8981688

E-mail: ophthalmos@ophthalmos.gr

www.ophthalmos.gr